Go to the NAVER Academic webpage.

https://academic.naver.com
Citation and publication status by categories

Check the detail information of citations for each category. You can also find most frequently cited articles and journals.

eg. View the category of 'Economics'
Citation and publication status by categories

Check the detail information of citations for each category. You can also find most frequently cited articles and journals.

eg. View the category of 'Economics'
Select the "MY" menu

Citation and publication status by categories

Check the detail information of citations for each category. You can also find most frequently cited articles and journals.

eg. View the category of 'Economics'
④ Input “kdi” in the search box and search
My Libraries  Up to 3 libraries can be registered.

By setting your affiliated university/organization as My library, you can browse source articles which the library subscribes to for free in search results.
When accessing from the IP band of your university/institution, you can view for free the articles your library subscribes to.

Add to my libraries

kdi

A - Z 가 나 다 라 마 바 사 아 자 카 타 팡 하

⑤ Put a check mark in the column that applies to KDI Central Library
When you return to your search you should see “KDI Central Library” links wherever the full text content is available for an article.